Introduction

This report aims at outlining the 'Modern Art' museum's strong and weak sides and offering possible ways of improving the place.

General overview

'Modern art' museum has a number of permanent exhibitions presenting masterpieces from all over the globe along with a few temporary ones replaced every 3 months. The latter represent certain topics ('Global problems' and 'Mental health' serving an example).

Pros

The museum is renowned for warm atmosphere, welcoming staff members and original selection of exhibits. Moreover, visitors are provided with a free leaflet containing all the essential information about the particular collection.

Cons

Leaflets handed out ¹⁰⁰ freely do not contain analyses of the artworks presented. In order to gain a thorough understanding of their meaning and artists' point of view one is required to purchase an audio guide, which proves to be expensive for the majority of attendants.

Recommendations

Taking everything mentioned into account, two main areas of improvement can be identified. Firstly, the price for audio guides should be lowered to attract more tourists. Secondly, artworks could be supplied with tags bearing basic information so as to ~~stop wasting money and~~ eliminate the leaflets. 150

Conclusion

If these recommendations are implemented, the place is bound to get more attractive and popular.
