ANSWER SHEET

Writing 9-11

Many may have heard about the "Percy Jackson" book series by an American author Rick Riordan, yet not seen its live adaptation. Unfairly forgotten by the fans, it is rarely discussed when the magical world of demigods is ^{addressed} ~~addressed~~.

• Why is it so?

One of the striking differences between the books and the movies is that many characters didn't make it to the film adaptation. The ones that did, though, looked completely different. For example, one of the main characters, a blonde named Annabeth Chase, is played by an actress with much darker hair. Moreover, many parts of the story are ^{omitted} ~~omitted~~: while the main storyline stays faithful to the original and tells the reader about Percy, Poseidon's son who's fighting the evil titan Chronos, the adaptation doesn't focus on the ^{characters'} personalities and is more of an action film.

SP

• Should you watch that?

Although some may disagree with me, I believe that the "Percy Jackson" movies should be given a chance. I loved the way the movies took a fresh look at the original and allowed the viewers to see the story in a different genre-action. While those who are new to the series are ought to read the books first, the ~~one~~ dedicated fans should check the films out.
